Alongside National Education programmes, Cultural offers more than 40 culture offerings in Paris

The different activities are adapted to suit all school years, from Nursery School to Secondary School in order to meet the expectations of teachers, as well as entertainment professionals.

This varied programme will always be part of an educational process and allows students and supervised children to work on their skill-sets.

Cultural is a real hotbed of talent with more than 100 speakers and organisers. All are supervised and report to the agency, which provides their initial and continuous training in collaboration with the cultural monument.

From artistic or technical training, every contributor knows how to perfectly adapt to any type of audience and different themes.

This is exactly what we offer thanks to our visits that are 'like no other'... so, what are you waiting for,

follow the guide!

Arts p.2

Immerse children in the marvellous world of Parisian art. Combining heritage and artistic techniques, they will become buffs in the field! The Cité du Cinéma, the Musée Jacquemart-André, the Espace Dalí and the Museum of Montmartre... just so many places dedicated to art from over the centuries.

History p.8

What better than a dip in the heart of our history? With the Eiffel Tower, the Republican Guard and our walks around the neighbourhoods with diverse and varied themes, these children will know the secrets of our past better than anyone.

Recreational p.11

Learning while having fun? Nothing could be easier thanks to our guided tours, educational workshops and interactive journeys waiting to be discovered. For young athletes, the Stade de France will open their eyes. For the artistic-minded, the Musée Grévin will reveal the secrets behind the creation of famous wax statues!

Music p.12

For budding music lovers or aspiring connoisseurs, our guided tours and educational workshops will open up the wonderful world of music to children. The Philharmonie de Paris, the Palais Garnier and Théâtre Mogador are three sumptuous places that hold real magic.

THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE AROUND THE POSTERS OF MONTMARTRE

90 min workshop (30 min guided tour followed by a 60 min workshop)
Maximum capacity: 30 • Ages: 6 > 12 yrs old

The tour will uncover the most popular posters of Montmartre, such as Le Chat Noir by Steinlen, the Moulin Rouge by Toulouse-Lautrec and many others, such as those dedicated to propaganda during the Paris Commune of 1871. The workshop that follows introduce children to the ways of making a poster. How do you make such a poster? What codes should be followed? How do you choose colours, fonts, titles, images, text and symbols... in order to create an attractive poster and meet the advertising codes revealed during the visit.

For the workshop, students must be put into small groups of 3 and 4 before the visit. Wear an old t-shirt.

- Each child will have a role to play in this task. The class will leave with the poster they create during the workshop.

THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE

THE ANIMALS OF THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE

90 min workshop (30 min guided tour followed by a 60 min workshop)
Maximum capacity: 30 • Ages: 4 > 5 yrs old

Over the course of a fun 30-minute visit in the museum or the gardens, depending on the weather, children will discover the different animals that inspired the most famous posters of Montmartre. The children will learn all there is to know about Le Chat Noir and the Lapin Agile. This interactive visit will be followed by a creative workshop during which children can let their imaginations run wild and their creativity shine through, by putting their artistic skills into practice. Drawing, painting, sticking... anything goes when re-creating the animals studied during the visit or those straight out of their own imaginations.

Wear an old t-shirt.

♥ The class will leave with the work they create during the workshop.

THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE

RENOIR

90 min workshop (30 min guided tour followed by a 60 min workshop)
Maximum capacity: 30 • Ages: 8 > 10 yrs old

This workshop visit begins in the Renoir Gardens, named after the famous painter who lived temporarily in the museum. Your tour guide will talk about the artist's life, what inspired him, his love for the gardens, light and nature and his quick brushstroke style called impressionism. During the workshop, children can choose an existing work or something right out of their imaginations. They will learn about impressionism: how light and shade can be created with small coloured strokes and why you should gradually reduce the strokes as you paint.

Wear an old t-shirt.

♥ The children will learn every last detail about Renoir. The class will leave with the canvas they create during the workshop.

THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE

THE FLOWERS OF VALADON

90 min workshop (30 min guided tour followed by a 60 min workshop)
Maximum capacity: 30 • Ages: 6 > 12 yrs old

A 30-minute guided tour during which children can learn about Suzanne Valadon, the first female painter of the Butte Montmartre, who was a major influence on the artists of this area. During the workshop, which follows the visit, children will discover the artist's paintings, especially her floral compositions. Inspired by her work, children will then create their own masterpieces using several materials: tissue paper, coloured paper, pencils and charcoal.

Wear an old t-shirt.

♥ This fun and artistic workshop will highlight the talent and techniques of a renowned artist.

THE MUSEUM OF MONTMARTRE

VIEWS AND LANDSCAPES OF THE MUSEUM

90 min workshop (30 min guided tour followed by a 60 min workshop)
Maximum capacity: 30 • Ages: 6 > 10 yrs old

This workshop teaches children about the artistic zest of Montmartre in the 19th and 20th centuries. Using Rooul Dufy, a resident of Montmartre and pioneer of Fauvism, as a reference, students will learn about his artistic method: the unnatural colours, the speed of his movements and the way he puts personal feelings onto canvas.

The students will then have a go at expressing their emotions and dreams through painting. On canvas, they can paint the landscape they hope to admire every day when they open their curtains.

Wear an old t-shirt.

♥ A fun and creative workshop where dreams become reality. The class will leave with the canvas they create during the workshop.
